INDIAN GIVER

Indian Chief, "Two Eagles," was asked by a white government official, "You have observed the white man for 90 years. You've seen his wars and his technological advances. You've seen his progress, and the damage he's done."

The Chief nodded in agreement.

The official continued, "Considering all these events, in your opinion, where did the white man go wrong?"

The Chief stared at the government official for over a minute and then calmly replied. "When white man find land, Indians running it. No taxes, No debt, Plenty buffalo, Plenty beaver, Clean Water; Women did all the work, Medicine man free. Indian man spend all day hunting and fishing; All night having sex."

Then the chief leaned back and smiled. "Only white man dumb enough to think he can improve system like that."

CH-CH-CH-CHANGES

Years ago, there was an old tale in the Marine Corps about a lieutenant who inspected his Marines and told the "Gunny" that they smelled bad. The lieutenant suggested that they change their underwear. The Gunny responded, "Aye, aye, sir, I'll see to it immediately."

He went into the tent and said, "The lieutenant thinks you guys smell bad, and wants you to change your underwear. Smith, you change with Jones, McCarthy, you change with Witkowskie, Brown, you change with Schultz. Get to it!"

The moral: A candidate may promise change but don't count on things smelling any better.

FLUSHED WITH PRIDE

They named an airport after Reagan, who deregulated air controllers. Lincoln sits stoned in his memorial and Washington is a capital, and a state. But according to reporter Jesse McKinley, "President George W. Bush may soon be the sole president to have a memorial named after him that you can contribute to from the bathroom." How apt.

The San Francisco Presidential Memorial Commission hopes for a referendum to create the "George W. Bush Sewage Plant" which would be renamed on Jan. 20, at Obama's inauguration. But regardless of the measure's outcome, supporters have vowed to commemorate the change of administration with a "synchronized flush" of hundreds of thousands of toilets directing a flood of water to the site, presently called the "Oceanside Water Pollution Control Plant.”

INSANE FOR HUSSEIN

Barack Obama wears a Flag Pin at all times. Even in the shower. Barack Obama says the Pledge of Allegiance every time he sees an American flag. He also ends every sentence by saying, “With Liberty And Justice For All.” (Click here for video of Obama quietly mouthing the Pledge of Allegiance in his sleep.)

A tape exists of Michelle Obama saying the Pledge of Allegiance at a conference on Patriotism. Every weekend, Barack and Michelle take their daughters Hunting.

Barack Obama is a Patriotic American. He has one Hand over his Heart at all times. (He occasionally switches when one arm gets tired, which is almost never because he is STRONG.) Barack Obama has the Declaration of Independence tattooed on his stomach. It's upside-down, so he can read it while doing sit-ups. There's only one artist on Barack Obama's iPod: Francis Scott Key.

Barack Obama is a Devout Christian. His favorite book is the Bible, which he has memorized. His name means “He Who Loves Jesus” in the ancient language of Aramaic. He is Proud that Jesus was an American. Barack Obama goes to church every morning. He goes to church every afternoon. He goes to church every evening. He is In Church Right Now! Barack Obama's new airplane includes a conference room, a kitchen, and a Megachurch.

Barack Obama buys American Stuff. He owns a Ford, a Baseball Team, and a Computer he built himself from American Parts. He travels mostly by Forklift.

Barack Obama says that Americans cling to Guns and Religion because they are AWESOME. Barack Obama's skin is the color of American Soil...

IT’S NO MYSTERY

Melinda and I had a wonderful time at the Second Annual Mystery Writers Festival in Owensboro, Kentucky at Zev Buffman’s beautiful RiverPark Center on the Ohio River. We performed in a dozen audio adaptations of plays, screenplays and stories by authors like Ray Bradbury, Rupert Holmes. Sam Bobrick, Lee Goldberg and Robert S. Levinson, fully costumed (by Melinda) with live Walla, Foley and music.

I was also drafted to write the Awards Show this year, which I co-hosted with WKRP’s zany Gary Sandy who won an Angie for best performance in Live Radio Theatre, produced again by Dave Ossman’s wife Judith Walcutt. Melinda directed me and I her in “Murder Times Two” and we’re still talking...

Fireheads interested in autographed copied of Ossman’s “Dr. Firesign's Follies” (or “The Ronald Reagan Murder Case”) can get them from the author by sending a check for $25 each (post paid) to Otherworld Media, P.O. Box 566, Freeland, WA 98249

IN THE CAN

Recently, the inventor of the Pringles had some of his cremated ashes buried in a Pringles can but that's nothing! At a cardiologist's recent elaborate funeral, a huge heart covered in flowers stood behind the casket during the service and following the eulogy, the heart opened, and the casket rolled inside. The heart then closed, sealing the doctor in the beautiful heart forever.

At that point, one of the mourners burst into laughter. When all eyes turned to him, he sputtered, "I'm sorry, I was just thinking of my own funeral. I'm a gynecologist."
The proctologist fainted.

- Napoleon - "You're not hiding your report card? Show me! Take your hand out of your jacket and show me!"
- Lincoln - "Again with that hat! Why can't you wear a baseball cap like the other kids?"
- Washington - "Next time I catch you throwing money across the Potomac, you can kiss your allowance good-bye!"
- Edison - "Okay, so I'm proud that you invented the electric light bulb. Now turn it off already and go to sleep!"

IF ELECTED, I WILL NOT SERVE

Speculation is intense about the possible running mates for Surrealist Party Candidate George Papoon. According to "high" placed officials who's spelling was not good enough to be quoted verbatim, the major qualification for the VP slot is that they are "not insane". This leaves out almost everyone who wants the job.

Speculation is centered on Mrs. Harvey Rhodes, who hasn't voted since 1964; Elvis Presley, who has been dead for thirty years; and rapper R. Kelly, who may be insane but once again is not wanted by the police. Why speculation has centered on these three is a matter of speculation.

Several people commented on the record, but TALONNEWS ignored them.

REAL GEORGE

Carlin was a grouch on stage and a great guy off, always ready to sign autographs or pose with fans and ever grateful for his success. He was a Firesign fan as well, appeared on our PBS special "Weirdly Cool" and we're still peddling our stuff on Laugh.com, his comedy site. He didn't just "push" the envelope with his material, he tore it to pieces, and when fellow Yalie Paul Gorman dared to play his seven naughty words routine on his WBAI "Lunch Pail" show, it resulted in a 1978 Supreme Court ruling which upheld the government's authority to prohibit freedom of foul speech. "So my name is a footnote in American legal history," he said, "which I'm perversely kind of proud of."

He leaves us with 23 comedy albums, 14 HBO specials, three books and many TV and film appearances. He was the host of the first "Saturday Night Live" - "loaded on cocaine all week long," he claims. He won four Grammy Awards for best Spoken Comedy album, (once beating The Firesign Theatre, the bastard) and was nominated for five Emmys. He died of a heart attack before he could receive the 11th annual Mark Twain Prize for American Humor, but he killed many more of us with his caustic but clear-sighted comedy.
