We Killed 'em

We just spent three intense but satisfying weeks at the Capitol Theatre in Clearwater, Florida, revisiting our roles in Agatha Christie's *The BBC Murders, a stage adaptation by Judith Walcutt and David Ossman of four of her radio plays, described in a review by Tampa Bay Times critic John Fleming as "a captivating experience, with a terrific cast [in a] splendid rendition of radio theater."

We next take the elaborately designed show to a much larger venue at producer Zev Buffman's beautiful Parker Playhouse in Ft. Lauderdale, where I appeared in 1967 during the inaugural season in Generation with Bob Cummings (right) Les Brown, Jr. and TCM's Robert Osborne. We open our three-week run on January 15. Come see us!

And come see me as the G-man in the hilarious production of Kaufman and Hart's *You Can't Take it With You at Antaeus in NoHo, this Saturday at 2 and 8 p.m.

LOVE THAT BOB!
A hearty onstage handshake, in character from Mr. Cummings

TURKEY DAY

Mellie and I, still recovering from the BBC Murders and tired of killing things, fixed ourselves a simple Turkey Day dinner of apple tea, vegetarian shish-kabobs, hummus, and Bonomo's Turkish taffy – very traditional if you live in Istanbul.

My daughter and her Canadian husband, Geoff, skipped the holiday completely as they had already celebrated Canadian Thanksgiving on October 8, with a traditional meal of beaverloaf, inflated loon, and maple syrup. Hope you got stuffed, too.

WHAT'S ALL THIS BROU-HOOHA

While we were performing in Florida, I became a fan of Celia Rivenbark, who writes for the Tampa Bay Times. Here's why: "By now, most of you may have heard about the Florida woman who caused a two-vehicle wreck because she was shaving her bikini area while driving.

"Florida Highway Patrol troopers said the car Megan Barnes was driving crashed into the back of a pickup truck at about 45 mph. Her reaction time was slowed down because she was too busy grooming her hooah to pay attention to the road. Oh, like that's never happened to you?

"Ms. Barnes told the investigating officer that she was on her way to a date and 'wanted to be ready for the visit.' Except, well, we've seen Ms. Barnes' mug shot and she appears to have a face that would stop a clock and raise hell with small watches, bless her heart. To be blunt, I don't think a perfectly groomed love rug could possibly make that much difference.

"There are so many 'You might be a redneck if' elements to the story of Megan Barnes, but my favorite is that, while performing this extremely personal grooming ritual, she asked her EX-HUSBAND to steer the car so she could concentrate ('Help me out, Buford, I'm gonna make it look like a LIGHTNING BOLT!')

"To no one's particular surprise, the Highway Patrol quickly discovered that Ms. Barnes didn't have a valid driver's license. Oh, and, the day before, she'd been convicted of DUI and driving with a suspended license. Oh, and her car had been seized and had no insurance or registration. Oh, and she was on probation. Oh, and SHE'S A FLIPPIN' LUNATIC! Albeit an impeccably groomed one."

"Remember always that you not only have a right to be an individual, you have an obligation to be one."

~ Eleanor Roosevelt

CONFESSION

I was 5 years old, and one day I was mowing the front lawn and drinking a beer. A preacher who lived across the street saw it and came over to confront me.

"Aren't you a little young to be drinking, son?" he asked. "That's nothing, Father," I said after taking another swig. "I got laid when I was three."

"What?" he exclaimed, amazed, "And how did that happen?"

"I don't remember," I replied. "I was drunk."

BIG BABIES

Anyone wonder why the reaction to the recent political loss has been so overtly pessimistic and angry? Well, according to a New York Times piece by Richard A. Friedman, M.D., folks choose their party affiliations early in life, attracted to a party "that has people who resemble themselves." Once on board, they tend to "retrofit their beliefs" to align with the demands of the tribe.

And when the team loses one, the stress hormone Cortisol is released, resulting in a very real biological state of depression. Furthermore, the propaganda bubble in which the rightwing lives made the recent loss all the more unexpected, and led to a response of "primal denial," such as Karl Rove's reaction when Fox News called Ohio for Obama.

The rejection of Mitt Romney by a majority of the electorate "is a bit like seeing your father get fired or beaten up." And what does the loser feel like? "It's a sudden stop," says one defeated candidate.

"It's just like someone shut off the tap. It just ends. It's over. It's death." READ IT AND WEEP - OR WHOOP

So could one say the GOP is now the Ghost Of a Party? Let's hope they can resurrect themselves in a more Christ-like image.

"I saw a bus the other day advertising the movie 'Lincoln' on one part and 'Assassin's Creed' (in which I have a role) on the other." ~ Phil's Phunny Phacts

MORE SUGAR

I read another article in the Tampa Bay Times that spoke of a USF student named Youseff Mohamed (Joe Smith, in English) found with PVC pipes filled with a potassium nitrate mixture in the trunk of his car. He said they were "sugar rockets" and received a 15-year sentence for possession of an explosive device. What is a SUGAR ROCKET?

The article went on to say that the shirtless photos sent to Lebanese Bombshell Jill (Khawam) Kelley by that FBI flirt Humphries, was just one of a series of family joke "shots," of him standing between two firing-range dummies. Well that explains everything. Call off the investigation!

THE BIBLE TELLS US SO

"A great swindle of our time is the assumption that science has made religion obsolete. All science has damaged is the story of Adam and Eve and the story of Jonah and the Whale. Everything else holds up pretty well, particularly lessons about fairness and gentleness.

"People who find those lessons irrelevant in the 20th Century are simply using science as an excuse for greed and harshness. Science has nothing to do with it, friends."

So wrote the great, late Kurt Vonnegut. Ice Nine forever!

"No pessimist ever discovered the secret of the stars or sailed to an uncharted land." ~ Helen Keller

BAD BIRD

A young man named John received a parrot as a gift. The parrot had a bad attitude and an even worse vocabulary. Every word out of the bird's mouth was rude, obnoxious and laced with profanity. John tried and tried to change the bird's attitude by consistently saying only polite words, playing soft music and anything else he could think of to 'clean up' the bird's vocabulary.

Finally, John was fed up and he yelled at the parrot. The parrot yelled back. John shook the parrot and the parrot got angrier and even more rude. John, in desperation, threw up his hand, grabbed the bird and put him in the freezer. For a few minutes the parrot squawked and screamed. Then suddenly there was total quiet. Not a peep was heard for over a minute.

Fearing that he'd hurt the parrot, John quickly opened the door to the freezer. The parrot calmly stepped out onto John's outstretched arms and said "I believe I may have offended you with my rude language and actions. I'm sincerely remorseful for my inappropriate transgressions and I fully intend to do everything I can to correct my rude and unforgivable behavior." John was stunned at the change in the bird's attitude.

As he was about to ask the parrot what had made such a dramatic change in his behavior, the bird added, very softly, "May I ask what the turkey did?"

"Ugliness is superior to beauty because it lasts longer." ~ Serge Gainsbourg

I THOUGHT THEY LOST

"If a Republican doesn't like guns, he doesn't buy one; if a Democrat doesn't like guns, he wants all guns outlawed. If a Republican is a vegetarian, he doesn't eat meat; if a Democrat is a vegetarian, he wants all meat products banned for everyone. If a Republican is homosexual, he quietly leads his life; if a Democrat is homosexual, he demands legislated respect. If a Republican is down-and-out, he thinks about how to better his situation; a Democrat wonders who is going to take care of him.

"If a Republican doesn't like a talk show host, he switches channels. Democrats demand that those they don't like be shut down. If a Republican is a non-believer, he doesn't go to church; a Democrat non-believer wants any mention of God and religion silenced. If a Republican decides he needs health care, he goes about shopping for it, or may choose a job that provides it. A Democrat demands that the rest of us pay for his.

"If a Republican reads this, he'll forward it so his friends can have a good laugh. A Democrat will delete it because he's offended."

Oh, really? I think this kind of "them and us" thinking is un-American and keeps us divided. What do you think?

"A nation does not have to be cruel to be tough" ~ FDR CURTAINS!

There was real-life drama at Paul Rudd's Broadway play Grace when an audience member upchucked from the balcony onto theatergoers below. "There was mass chaos for several minutes, but the cast played right on through," said a witness. The unidentified drunk was immediately ushered out of the house, and the staff of the Cort Theater led the stinky patrons to restrooms for a clean up and proffered paper towels to others who wanted to stay on.

A rep for the show added, "We suspect that the audience member in question meant to see Rock of Ages and stumbled into the wrong theater. We apologize to the patrons seated in the direct line of fire."

Adds a whole new meaning to the phrase "getting bombed."

"It's useless to hold a person to anything he says while he's in love, drunk, or running for office." ~ Shirley MacLaine
