Happy Old Year!

Well, it was a busy year, both prosperous and preposterous, thanks to Dr. Seuss, Jack Benny, Harry Houdini, Bonejamen Franklin, Detective Polehouse and Dakin Matthews, to name a few.

After voicing The Cat in The Hat, Horton the Elephant and The Grinch Who Stole Christmas for William Kates and the magical Tonie Box toy, the Floorwalker in Jack Benny's Christmas Show for Gregg Oppenheimer's On Line Radio Theater, my recurring role as Detective Polehouse in the 30-year run of Adventures in Odyssey, various early American canines in Pups of Liberty, numerous roles along with John Goodman and Melinda Peterson in Kely Lyon's five-chapter podcast "Hindsight," with audio design by Ted Bonnitt – with whom I'm now appearing in Phil & Ted's Sexy Boomer Show, mostly LIVE every Tuesday at 1 p.m. on KPFK-FM, writing a bawdy sex-farce called Sherlock Shakespeare | continued

Take it or leave it

AN OLD MISER WAS CLOSE TO DYING, AND due to his terrible cheapness, he had no friends nor family. So just before he died, he called his doctor, his lawyer and a minister to his bedside.

"I always heard you can't take it with you," he said, "but I am going to prove you can. I have $90,000 in cash hidden under my mattress in three envelopes of $30,000 each. I want each of you to grab one envelope now and just before they throw the dirt on my grave, throw the envelopes in."

Weeks later, the three attended the funeral, and true to their word, each threw their envelope into the grave, but on the way back from the cemetery, the minister said, "I don't feel so good about this, but I am going to confess, I desperately needed funds for a new church we are building, so I took out $10,000 and threw only $20,000 in the grave."

The doctor said, "I, too, must confess. I am building a clinic and took $20,000 and threw in only $10,000. I feel terrible about it."

Then the lawyer said, "Gentlemen, I'm surprised, shocked and ashamed of both of you. I don't see how you could in good conscience hold on to that money."

"I threw in a personal check for the entire amount."

On a roll

PLANETEER TERRY BOLO WRITES, "HERE'S A good analogy I heard that really struck home with me. You put on a new roll of toilet paper, one of those big ones, big and fat. And wow, you got so much toilet paper you can roll some off and you still have lots left. That is youth.

"Then, after a while, the roll starts getting smaller, and rolls off faster, and the less you have the faster it rolls off ... and that, my friends, is old age."

A blast from the past

AROUND 1893 IN TEXAS, A MAN NAMED Henry Ziegland jilted his fiancée and the heart-broken girl's brother determined to defend her honor, confronted Zeigland outside his cabin and after a few words, shot him point blank. And then after the man collapsed, the girl's brother was so ashamed of his rash behavior that he turned the weapon on himself and took his own life.

However – Henry Ziegland had survived! And he was rushed to a doctor where his injuries were treated, and it was found that the bullet had only grazed his face and was found in a tree behind him where it was left untouched.

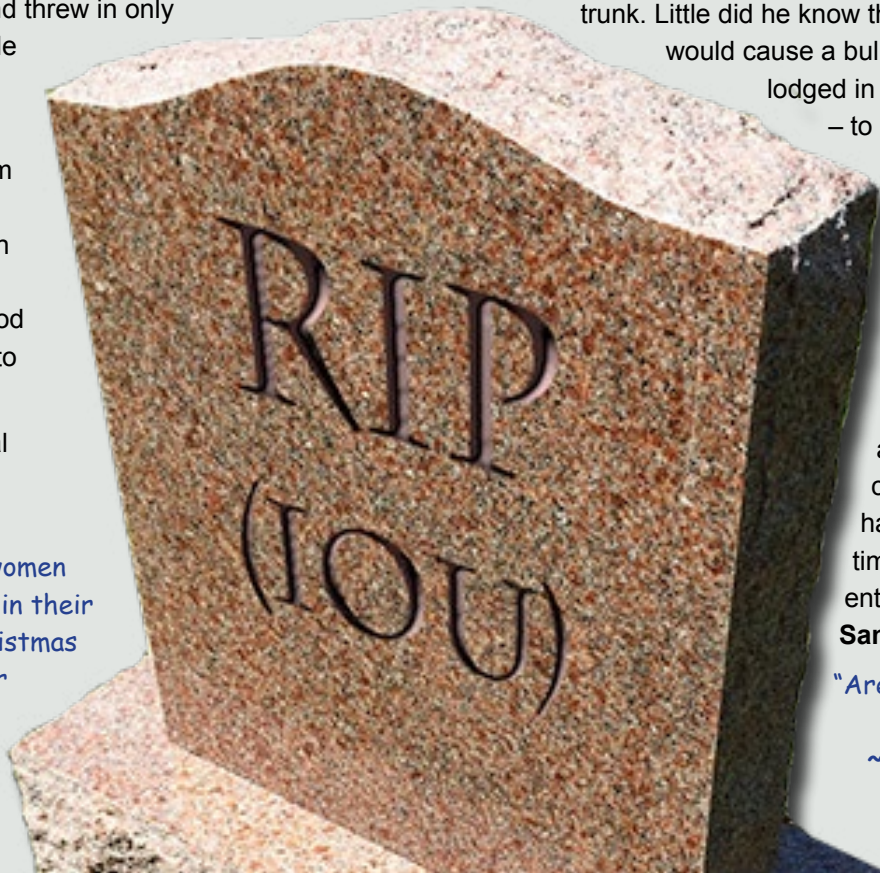

Some 20 years later, Henry decided to remove the old tree from his property by placing dynamite around the trunk. Little did he know that the resulting explosion would cause a bullet – the very one that was lodged in the tree for all those years – to strike him in the body and kill him dead!

Thus, Henry Ziegland died because of a bullet fired at him 20 years earlier!

PS: This is often called "The 20-Year Gunshot" and actually hasn't been confirmed to have really happened, but at the same time it has not been proven entirely false – unlike George Santos' resume...

Gotta hand it to him

THE LOCAL BAR WAS SO SURE THAT ITS bartender was the strongest man around that they offered a standing $1000 bet. The barkeep would squeeze a lemon until all the juice ran into a glass and hand the lemon to a patron. Anyone who could squeeze one more drop of juice from the fruit would win the cash prize. Many people had tried over time including construction workers and longshoremen, but nobody could do it.

One day, this scrawny little man came into the bar, wearing thick glasses and a polyester suit, and said in a tiny, squeaky voice, "I'd like to try the bet."

After the laughter had died down, the bartender said, "OK," grabbed a lemon, and squeezed away. Then he handed the wrinkled rind to the little man. But the crowd's laughter turned to total silence as the man clenched his fist around the lemon and amazingly six drops fell into the glass!

As the crowd cheered, the bartender peeled out the $1000, and asked the little man, "What do you do for a living? Are you a lumberjack, a weightlifter, what?"

And the man replied, "I'm an IRS agent."

Reflections of a Boomer

*I've seen fire and I've seen rain.
I've been through the desert on a horse with no name.
I've gone to Kansas City; I sang in the sunshine.
I've been on the road again, with Georgia on my mind.
Like a rolling stone, I've given peace a chance.
I've put a camel to bed and danced the last dance.
Mr. Tambourine man played a song for me,
I've whispered words of wisdom, let it be.
I've fallen into a burning ring of fire and walked the line,
To all the girls I've loved before, you were always on my mind.
I've been everywhere, I've been so lonesome I could cry,
I've driven my Chevy to the levee when the levee was dry.
I've been to Itchy Coo Park in a yellow submarine.
I've made the scene in a time machine.
I've done the Hokey Pokey and turned myself around.
I've welcomed baby back to the poor side of town.
I've followed the tracks of my tears down a long and winding road.
I've kept on searching for a heart of gold.
I've sought shelter from the storm; I've sat on the dock of the bay.
I've rocked around the clock on a sunshiny day.
I've knocked on Heaven's door, while blowing in the wind.
Joy to the world, those were the days my friend.
Lay lady lay, in crimson and clover.
It's been a hard day's night, the party's over...(Uncle Joe)*
